

Pongal playdough mats

Thank you!

Thank you for downloading this printable from

Have fun!

TERMS & CONDITIONS

This printable is strictly for personal and classroom use only. Commercial use of this file which includes file sharing, distribution, reselling or using the printed work from this file for profit is strictly prohibited.

We hope you love our printables!
Stay in touch to get updates

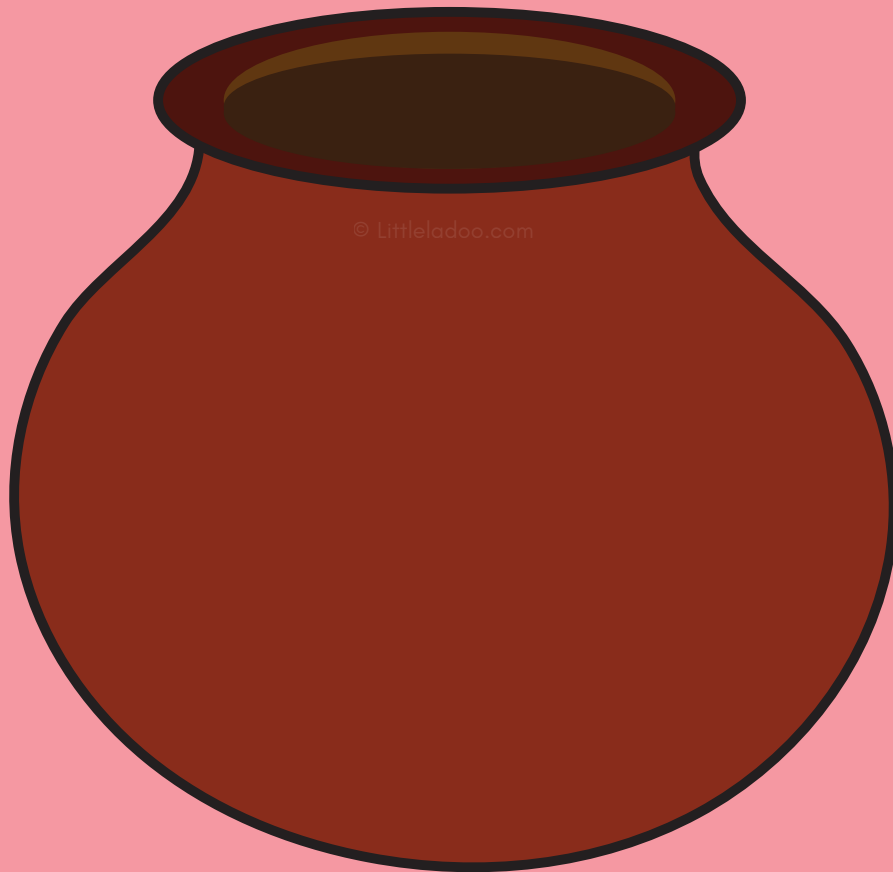

Leaf garland

Mango garland is used to adorn the doors of homes in all major Hindu festivals and auspicious occasions including Pongal.

Use Playdough to decorate the door with leaf garland

Earthen pot

© Littleladoo.com

On the day of Thai pongal pongal dish is prepared in a traditional clay pot with the harvested rice.

The pot is usually decorated with patterned artwork.

Use Playdough to decorate the pot as you wish & add some pongal

© Littleladoo.com

Bonfire

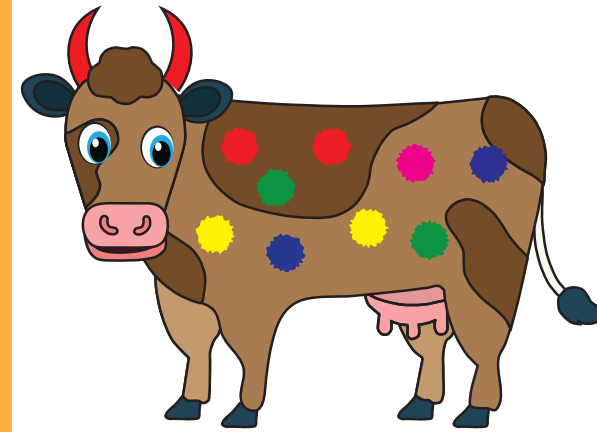

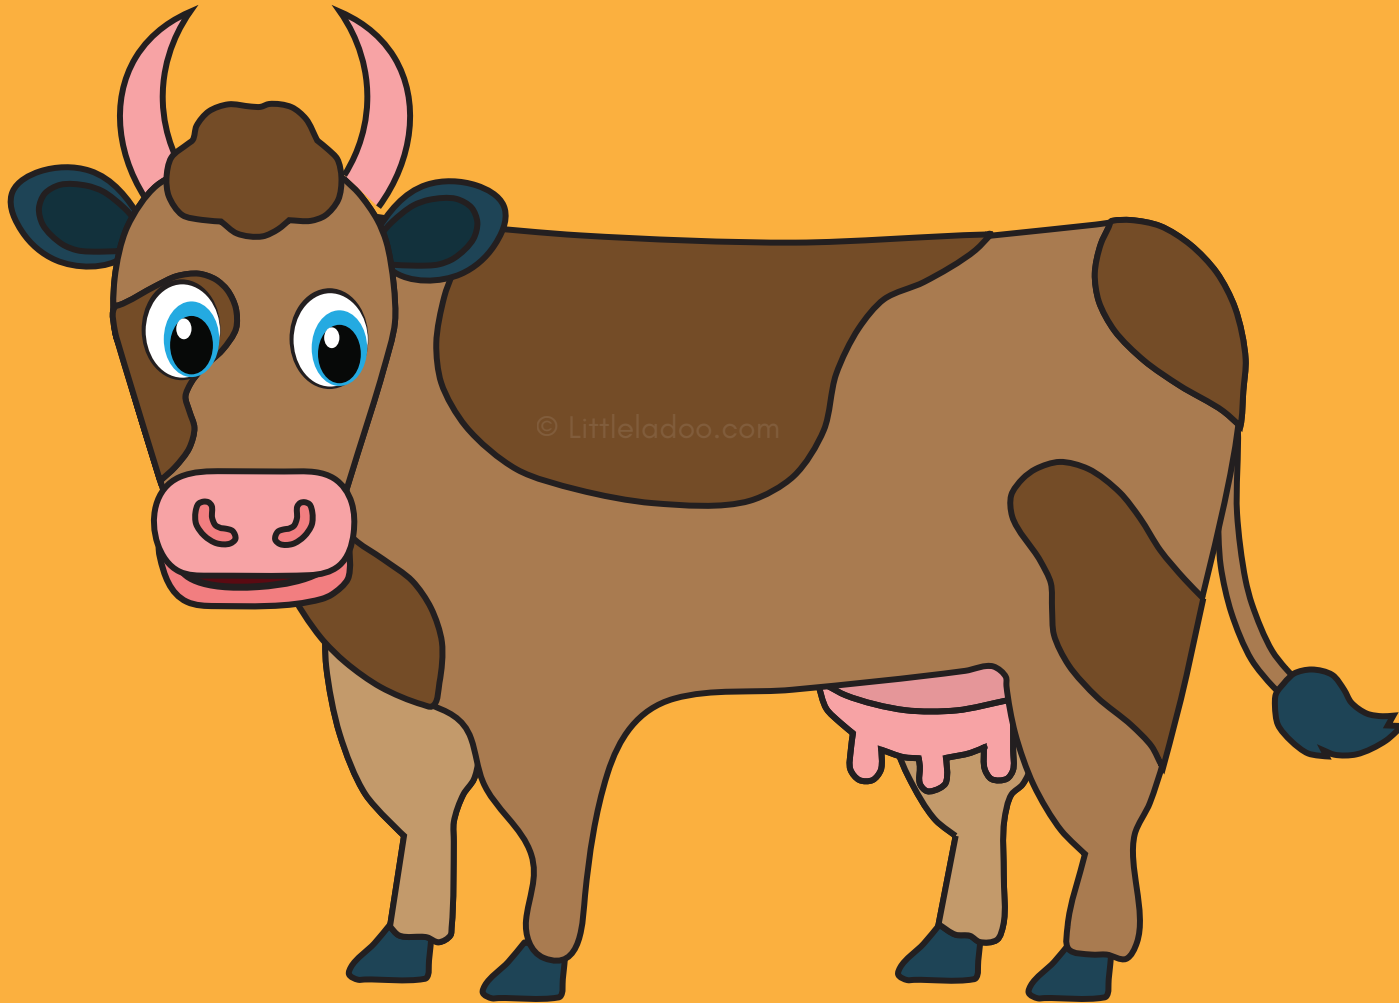

On the day of Bhoogi pongal all useless things from the house are discarded.

People assemble and light a bonfire to burn the old useless things.

Use Playdough to add fire

Cow

On the day of maattu Pongal, cows are worshipped. People wash their cows and paint their horns.

Multi-coloured beads, tinkling bells and flower garlands are tied around their necks.

Turmeric and kumkum are also devotionally put on the foreheads. Colour powder is also added as dots all over the body.

Use Playdough to decorate the cow as you wish